IT'S TIME TO INVEST IN YOU!

Our Why

We believe in supporting, representing, enabling and connecting the global workforce planning community in everything we do.

Who We Are

WPI is the global association for strategic workforce planning and planners.

We strive to elevate strategic workforce planning as a critical business discipline through fostering global and regional communities, delivering world class training programs, certifying experts and sharing a vast body of industry generated knowledge.

Events

Our flagship conferences in London, Sydney, and Chicago bring together global thought leaders, practitioners, and innovators in SWP. These events feature dynamic sessions, interactive workshops, and networking opportunities designed to inspire and equip attendees with actionable insights.

Learning

We offer a range of learning opportunities, from workshops and masterclasses to online courses tailored to different levels of expertise. Our programs are designed to build critical SWP capabilities, enhance strategic thinking, and support continuous professional growth.

Memberships

Our membership community provides exclusive access to resources, research, and a global network of SWP professionals. Members benefit from ongoing learning opportunities, industry insights, and a platform to share ideas and collaborate on solving workforce planning challenges.
